May 2023

From the Manager

As you already know, Meals on Wheels relies on the hard work and dedication of a committed team of volunteers - without them, we simply could not operate. That's why, every year, we join in celebrating National Volunteers Week, 15 - 21 May. This is a special opportunity for us to recognize and appreciate the amazing contributions of our volunteers, who truly are the lifeblood of our organization. We encourage you to take a moment to reflect on the many ways that volunteers make a difference in our daily lives, and to join us in thanking them for all that they do.

Some notices

- Please be advised, we no longer have the Premium meal Coq Au Vin on the menu. This has been discontinued by the supplier. If you would like a new menu, please contact the office.
- If you are not going to be home for your delivery or need to make any changes, please phone the office, and speak to a staff member.
- If you are unable to attend the restaurants, please phone the office and speak to a staff member.

Social Day Outing - Morning Melodies

Join us for our next bus trip on 24 May to the Joan in Penrith and watch the NSW Police Band.

Take a trip down memory lane with a morning of great moments and familiar themes from the world of cinema. Featuring Show Boat, Star Wars and more!

Morning Melodies has been running for 33 years at the Joan and is still going strong. With a beautiful pre-concert morning tea, the concerts offer more than just a morning's entertainment: they offer connection, community and culture.

Cost: $25.00 which includes morning tea, transport, and concert
Call the office for more details.

Updates at the office

Commencing the 26 April, Blacktown Meals on Wheels will be having refurbishments done with our freezers. We will be having a knock-down and rebuild of our walk-in freezers. This will make it more accessible for our packers and hold a greater number of meals.
